

Handbook on Mandatory and Voluntary Standards on Leather and Footwear Products
(In Major International Markets)

Brief Description:

In a first of its kind initiative, Federation of Indian Micro and Small & Medium Enterprises (FISME), has come up with a handbook covering exhaustive details on various standards related to the export of leather goods. Detailed sections covering Mandatory and Voluntary Standards applicable on Indian Leather goods in major export markets have been mapped and published in a comprehend Handbook. The Handbook enlists not only product wise and country wise mandatory and voluntary standards, but also lists testing labs, institutions and consultants for each standard that exporters could approach for assistance for compliance.
